

Aging Services of Georgia Professional Resources

This is an overview of the programs and services of Aging Services of Georgia. For detailed information, please explore other areas of this Website.

Aging Services of Georgia

As a membership association of not-for-profit and other mission-driven organizations, the Association is focused on Advocacy, Education, and Professional Networking.

Membership Information: Click on “Become A Member” for detailed information via the navigation bar on the left side of home page.

Public Policy Representation: Click on “Public Policy” via the navigation bar on the left side of the home page.

SHAREpoint: This software, used by members, allows them to connect with each other to ask questions, share information, and post documents.

Publications

The monthly e-Newsletter, “Coffey-Break” is designed to provide members current information relating to association news, current news of interest, public policy update, specific information relating to each area of the continuum of aging services, professional development/education information, Culture Change news, Vacancy Reports, Job listing, and national news.

LIFelines, a semi-monthly publication for nursing staff to provide the updated expanded information on topics they need to ensure quality, safety, and compliance accountability.

National Affiliation: Our national affiliate, American Association of Homes & Services for the Aging (AAHSA) has a variety of programs and services including national advocacy efforts, group purchasing and insurance programs, as well as a national conference.

Georgia Institute on Aging (the education arm of Aging Services of Georgia)

Click on “Professional Education” for more information regarding Current Events, the Annual State Conference, Institute Faculty, and the Culture Change Network of Georgia. The Institute provides affordable, quality training, offering 40 events each year with CEUs for various professional groups. Some of our annual events include:

- Conferences: Annual State Conference, Service Coordinator Conference
- Symposia: Assisted Living, Adult Day Services, Fair Housing, CCRCs
- Forums: Marketing/Admissions, Maintenance, Service Coordinators/Social Workers, Chaplains, Adult Day Providers, Activity Professionals

Education/Networking Luncheons: Offered three times each year with national speakers sharing information significant for staff throughout all organizations.

General Educational Events

FREE Webinar Series for members

Board Development Series

AgingServicesNEXT (Leadership Development Programs – 5 full days each year)

AgingServicesNOW (Small groups of members that Research/Review information and share via webinars)

The Center for Positive Aging (the consumer arm of Aging Services of Georgia)

Click on “Consumer Resources”

The Center 1) connects Consumers to information like terminology and navigating the network of aging services AND 2) Quality Providers in Georgia.